DEAD BODY OF FARMER FOUND

Murderers Rob Victim, Pour Coal Oil Over Body and Close House.

Longmont, Colo., Jan. 20.—This community is considerably wrought up over the discovery today of the dead body of William Collier, aged 55, a prominent farmer living north of the city. Collier had evidently been murdered for robbery and in an effort to hide the crime, his assailants poured coal oil over the body and around the house, evidently intending to destroy all evidence by burning the place. The mistake was made, however, of closing the doors and windows, thus shutting off all air and preventing the fire from spreading. The murder was committed at least four or five days ago, according to appearances. Collier's trousers pockets had been turned inside out and his watch and money were missing.

SULLIVAN OFFERS BIG PURSE

Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars for Match Between Jeffries and Johnson

Washington, Jan. 20.—An offer of $75,000 for a match between Jeffries and Johnson has been made by John L. Sullivan, according to a statement made by the former heavyweight champion today, who is playing at a local theater here. He stated that he represented a number of men who were willing to put up the money.

SURPRISE READY FOR DEFENSE

Body of Senator Carmack Exhumed and Autopsy Reveals New Points.

Nashville, Jan. 20.—With the stage set for the Cooper murder trial, it became known today that the defense had prepared a surprise for the state by having had the body of Senator Carmack exhumed and an autopsy held. The defense asserts that Senator Carmack fired first. The state's theory is that Senator Carmack, with his hat raised to greet a lady, was shot from behind. The state now claims to have proof that the bullet which killed Senator Carmack entered his neck from behind.

This, however, does not entirely disprove the theory of the defense. Even the defense does not claim that Col. Cooper fired the shots. It maintains that Robin Cooper, believing his father's and his own life in danger, fired upon Carmack to protect his life and it is not contended that young Cooper stood elsewhere than behind Carmack.

Both sides announced readiness to proceed today and Judge Hart ordered the jury panel sworn. Quite a number of women were present. Colonel Cooper and his son entered the court room arm in arm and ex-Sheriff Sharp followed them. Mrs. Lucius Burch, daughter of Colonel Cooper, met her father and brother with a cheerful smile and conversed animatedly with them. Young Cooper was fashionably attired and seemed in splendid spirits. His father was very quiet and showed the effects of confinement. The legal talent employed in the case is imposing. For the state were Attorney General Jeff McCann, Captain G. I. Fitzhugh of Memphis; General J. B. Garner of Lawrenceburg and General Matt Whitaker of Winchester. For the defense were Judge M. M. Anderson, General W. H. Washington, General M. M. Meeks, Judge E. Baxter, General N. Burch, James A. Ryan and Albert Ewing.

HOUSE FAVORS PROHIBITING IMPORTATION OF OPIUM

Washington, Jan. 20.—The bill by Representative Denby (Mich.) which proposes to prohibit the importation of opium into the United States except for medical purposes, has been favorably acted upon by the house committee on foreign affairs.

TWO TYPES OF TURKISH TRANSITION — THE SULTAN DRIVING IN AN OPEN CARRIAGE THROUGH THE LINES OF HIS PEOPLE TO THE OPENING OF PARLIAMENT, AND THE FIRST TURKISH AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES

This was the first time that the sultan has publicly appeared in many years. It depicts the transition from a hated ruler to a loved leader. Below is the first Turkish ambassador to the United States, Hessian Kaizim Bey. All former representatives from the sublime porte have been ministers. Hessian Kaizim Bey is the first ambassador. Another transition from the old Turkey to the new.

No Cause for Alarm.
"I can't understand my husband, doctor. I am afraid there is something terrible the matter with him."
"What are his symptoms?"
"Well, I often talk to him for half an hour at a time, and when I get through he hasn't the least idea what I've been saying."
"Do not worry any more about your husband. I wish I had his gift."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Frugal Diner.
Although the Austrian emperor eats very frugally his majesty pays his chief cook $10,000 a year. The court is noted for its elaborate repasts.

True Kindness.
Little Girl of Four (standing entranced before the window of a toyshop)—"Oh, mother, if you was my little girl, wouldn't I take you in and buy some of these lovely things!"
